LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Condensed Time Table Tionesta Station.

Table with columns for NORTH and SOUTH, listing train numbers and times.

—Rev. Jno. R. May, of the United Presbyterian church, will preach in the Presbyterian church in this place next Sabbath at 11 a. m., and in the Presbyterian church in Pleasantville in the evening.

—Preaching in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening by F. M. Small. —Presbyterian Sabbath School at 9:45 a. m.; M. E. Sabbath School at 10 a. m.

—Mrs. Heibel of Warren, is paying her son Edward a visit.

—The State Sunday School Association will meet in Snubury, October 20th and 22d inclusive.

—D. W. Clark's new mansion in the north ward is the admiration of all eyes as it assumes proportions.

—Charlie Hinton received a severe fall from a wagon last Saturday, from the effects of which he was housed up for a few days.

—The 4 o'clock train on Saturday evening ran over and killed Postmaster Arner's cow, between this station and Jamieson's.

—John Thompson, an inmate, suicided in Clarion jail on Tuesday of last week, by banging himself with one leg of his drawers.

—Ed. Dewoody drove through town last week with a wagon load of new furniture wherewith to begin house-keeping. Good act, Ed.

—W. Y. Siggins furnishes our citizens with a choice lot of vegetables from his excellent garden these days. His prices are very reasonable.

—The mason's are at work on the foundation of Capt. Clark's new house on his Hunter Run farm. It will be a commodious building.

—Hon. Lucius Rodgers, editor of that staunch Republican paper, the McKean Miner, was the guest of Hon. J. B. Agnew a part of last week.

—Mrs. W. J. Bleakley and children of Franklin, are enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Col. Thomas. They expect to remain several weeks.

—Miss Hattie Offerlee of Geneseo, Iowa, Misses Etta Leubart and Girtie Morck of Warren, Pa., are being entertained by the Misses Jackson this week.

—The friends of Mr. M. Baily, formerly a resident of Tionesta, will be pleased to congratulate him on the recent arrival of a little daughter at his place.

—Mr. Ernest Behrens of Dutch Hill, is at present in Kansas on a visit to his son Rudolph, who has become one of the prosperous farmers of that rapidly growing State.

—Blackberries, it seems from reports and indications are not to be the present year, nearly so plentiful as heretofore. In fact from some localities the crop is reported a failure.

—The new street leading to the river bridge will soon be the handsomest one in town. The council has ordered new sidewalks built on both sides of it within thirty days.

—Mrs. P. Joyce, accompanied by her children, is visiting her old home in Sharon, Pa., this week. Meanwhile Pat is keeping bachelor's hall and taking his meals at the hotel.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Ackerly and children of Jacksonville, Florida, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Chase and children of Girard, Erie county, Pa., are on a visit to Judge Arner's family at Kelletville.

—The fourth annual picnic of the A. O. U. W., of this section will be held at Conneaut Lake next Wednesday, Aug. 26. Excursion rates can be had from Oil City, by all who wish to attend.

—The County Superintendent, for the accommodation of the teachers of Jeaks Twp., not holding valid certificates, and for others who may wish to attend, will hold an examination at Marienville, Aug. 28.

—Mr. L. F. Cromer, who spent the past few years prospecting in Colorado, returned to Forest several days ago, to remain for a time if not permanently. He had the misfortune to be caught in an avalanche of snow during last winter, causing the fracture of one arm, and one leg and otherwise injuring him, and laying him up for some months.

—Mr. C. W. Moon met with quite a painful accident last Saturday by running a couple of slivers into the back of his right hand. Dr. Morrow removed them, the largest being an inch and a half in length.

—Rev. and Mrs. F. M. Small have invited their many friends to assist them in celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary, or Silver Wedding, on the evening of August 28th. A pleasant event is anticipated.

—Peter Berry's well No. 13 was struck by lightning one day last week burning the rig and tank connected. Another 1200 barrel tank on the Howe tract, belonging to Peter, burst and all its contents were lost.

—A family re-union was held at the residence of Judge Arner at Kelletville yesterday, all the children and grandchildren—thirty-two in all—being present. We are without particulars, but feel assured it was a most happy occasion.

—Everybody who knows anything about it, says the crop of beechnuts coming on this season will be the largest known to this section for many years. This is good news to lovers of the gun as it will undoubtedly bring myriads of pigeons around this fall.

—A Tylersburg correspondent to the Clarion Jacksonian says that E. Terrill & Co. will locate a saw-mill at Oakwood, Forest county, in the near future. And also that Judge Cook will test China land soon. His well being down 2,000 feet and still drilling.

—Wm. R. Reck of Strattanville passed through the town en route to the upper oil country on a few days vacation while the mill of which he has charge is undergoing repairs. He must be living pretty high of late as he looked about 25 pounds heavier than usual.

—The many young friends of Miss May Agnew, who is now under the medical care of Dr. Stewart of St. Vincent Hospital, Erie, will be pained to learn that her condition is not materially better. However, the Doctor has strong hopes of her ultimate recovery but says she must have careful attention.

—Attention is called to the new card in this issue of W. A. Eagles, who now prides himself on the possession of the best livery the town has ever had. His charges are very reasonable, and he never allows a customer to go away disappointed when he calls at his stable for a rig, no matter at what hour of the day or night.

—Last Thursday evening Mr. Mack Agnew gave a party to his young friends in honor of his cousin, Miss Ella Cook, who has been the guest of the family for the past week. Upwards of seventy of Tionesta's charming young people were in attendance, and the spacious mansion of Hon. J. B. Agnew was thrown open to the happy guests, who enjoyed the generous hospitality of the family to the full extent. It was the society event of the season and will long be a green spot in the memory of those whose good fortune it was to be there.

—Peterson's Magazine for September opens with a very beautiful steel engraving, from a picture in the last Paris salon, "The Drink At The Spring," but contains, in addition, a mammoth colored fashion-plate, besides some fifty other illustrations, chiefly for the fashions, the work-table, etc., etc. The stories are remarkably good, even for "Peterson." It seems, to us, to fulfil all the requirements of a lady's-book, and at a price that places it within the reach of all—viz: two dollars a year. Address Charles J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

—Ballou's Magazine for September has an illustrated article on the Crimea, and the mysterious movements of Russia on the Black Sea, at the present, after years of quietness. It is worth reading. Then follows the California story, "Lewey and I; or, Sailor Boys' Wanderings," by Wm. H. Thomas, author of "The Belle of Australia," and "On Land and Sea." There are stories and poems of great merit in Ballou's Magazine, and some rare wit and humor. It is a good number, and one the people will be pleased to read. It is only $1.50 per year. Address Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley St., Boston, Mass.

—H. J. Hopkins & Co. have just opened up an immense stock of new and seasonable goods, fresh from the east.

—Elsewhere in this issue appears a card of thanks from Stow Post concerning the late memorial services. The following delicate comment from the Franklin News, is peculiarly applicable in the case of Stow Post: A card from Mays Post appears in this issue, in which they return thanks to various persons for assistance rendered in connection with the Grant memorial services. The general opinion is that the great preponderance of thanks should go the other way—that is, from the public to the Post. The memorial service was a matter that belonged to the public generally; yet the Post had the burden and responsibility, and all the expenses, including the 400 yards of muslin used in decorating the church came out of their fund.

—The band boys were out in full force Monday night,—not the brass band, but the cow-bell, tin-pan, store-box boys,—all on account of, and to assist in celebrating, the quiet marriage of Tionesta's enterprising young carriage maker, Mr. Chas. Raisig to Miss Anna Jones, one of Forest's most charming young lady teachers. So completely did Charlie succeed in throwing the boys off their guard that his most intimate friends knew nothing of the happy event until the ceremonies had been performed and Chas. had engaged rooms at the Central House for himself and bride. But the organizing of a band was but the work of a few minutes, and the young couple was obliged to pass through the ordeal of a serenade before entering upon the enjoyment of their honeymoon. Well, we suspected as much, but had begun to think Charlie was destined to be overtaken by the license law, in which case his friends might have been able to have given him a much better send off. However, we join everybody in the congratulations that are being showered on the happy pair, and wish them many years of joy, peace and prosperity.

—Picnic at Holeman Flats.

A correspondent sends us the following account of a pleasant picnic held by the Sunday School of Holeman Flats on Thursday of last week: The morning of the picnic appeared gloomy enough, owing to the rain which descended during the morning and continued until after noon. Preparations were made to have the picnic in the grove near Mr. Huff's place, but under the circumstances everything was transferred to Newmaker's mill, where a bounteous dinner was served, consisting of roast turkey, ham and chicken, pies and sweet cake, ice cream and lemonade, to no end. A swing was erected, and in the afternoon those who wished enjoyed the same, while others enjoyed the game of croquet. Over seventy were present for dinner and had it not rained perhaps many more would have been present. Everything passed off pleasantly, and although the morn was bleak and gray, The dark clouds passed away; The sun's pure light shone down so bright To bless our Picnic Day.

—Kelletville Items.

Mr. H. Smith has returned from a prolonged visit in Clarion Co.

Mr. H. Groce, with a band of Salmon "Tufts," departed the other morning for Brookston, where he intends hauling bark for a few months.

John Littlefield is now at work erecting the new school house on the other side of the creek opposite Kelletville.

Willie Pettigree has quit choring for Judge Arner, and Wm. Grant has taken his place.

J. C. Welsh has purchased the store at Kelletville from E. E. Stitzinger. Miss Ella Moore has become a resident of this place.

Albert Breunan and E. E. Stitzinger were up to Warren last Sabbath to the Free Methodist camp meeting, Aug. 17, 1885. VISITOR.

—Look in on H. J. Hopkins & Co. and see what a magnificent line of new goods they have just received. 1t.

—Having purchased a lot of Shoes at a rare bargain we are at present offering some good values. See our School Shoes.
